Changes in the mass... again?

WE BOW DURING THE CREED As we proclaim the words of the Creed "by the power of the Holy Spirit, he was born of the Virgin Mary and became man" we will all bow, expressing our profound gratitude and awe for Christ becoming a human being. The importance of this statement calls in us a response that needs to be embodied. As St. Paul wrote to the Philippians, "at the name of Jesus every knee must bend," thus, as we contemplate the Incarnation, we now humbly bow as we pray these powerful words.

INVITATION TO THE "PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS" During the preparation of the altar and the gifts, at what we used to be called the offertory, the priest says: "Pray my dear friends that our sacrifice may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father." When he completes this invitation to prayer, we will now stand as a community and then respond to what he said with our response: "May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good, and the good of all his Church." This standing is a sign that we have accepted the priest's invitation to pray, and then, as we all stand, make our communal response.

WE NOW BOW BEFORE RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION. As we come forward toward the altar, we remain standing, and as we approach the minister of Communion we bow our head, respond "Amen," and receive either in the hand or on the tongue. If we receive the Precious Blood, the same reverence, the bow of the head, is done before receiving. We do not genuflect.

Dal nostro DIACONO DANTE COLANDREARiflessione del Mese di Ottobre*Mese dedicato al Santo Rosario

L'UMILTA' DI SAN FRANCESCO - San Francesco si trovava alla Porziuncola con Frate Masseo, uomo di grande santita' e grazia nel parlare di Dio. Per questo il Santo lo amava molto. Un giorno, mentre Francesco tornava dal bosco dove era stato a pregare, frate Masseo, che voleva provare la sua umilta', gli ando' incontro dicendogli: "Perche' proprio a te? Perche' tutto il mondo vien dietro a te e tutti vogliono vederti, ascoltarti e ubbidirti? Tu non sei bello, non hai grande cultura, non sei nobile. Perche' dunque, tutti ti seguono cosi'?" San Francesco a queste parole si rallegro' molto e guardando il cielo rimase per molto tempo rapito in Dio. Quando ritorno' in se si inginocchio' lodando e ringraziando il Signore, poi, molto infervorito, rispose a frate Masseo: "Vuoi sapere perche' il mondo segue proprio me? Vedi, gli occhi dell'Altissimo Iddio che vedono in ogni luogo e in ogni cuore, hanno visto che non esiste peccatore piu' vile, piu' misero di me sulla terra. Per questo, per attuare il suo grande disegno, Dio ha scelto me, per confondere la nobilta', la grandezza e la potenza del mondo, affinche' si sappia che ogni virtu' e ogni bene non provengono dalle creature ma dal Creatore e nessuno possa gloriarsi davanti a Dio. (Cfr 1 Cor 1,27-31). Solo a Lui ogni onore e gloria, nei secoli dei secoli". Frate Masseo, davanti ad una risposta cosi' umile, fu meravigliato e spaventato nel comprendere la profondita' dell'umilta' di Francesco. PROPOSITI - Francesco con la sua umilta' ci esorta: - a non esaltarci ne' di fronte agli uomini ne' di fronte a Dio; - a dare onore e gloria a Dio per quanto Egli opera per nostro mezzo. GIACULATORIA - San Francesco, prega per noi. -Pater, Ave, Gloria.

SAINTS BE PRAISED!

These words might remind you of your second grade teacher Sr. Mary Joseph, but did you know that she was really teaching you a wonderful lesson? We as Catholics have honored saints in our memories, hearts, and in prayer. Their lives are constant reminders that we can attain goodness, courage, and faith in our persistence to imitate the life of Jesus.

November 1st is the Feast of All Saints, when we as a church recognize the important role a saint has in our life. Perhaps we are devoted to the saint that bears our name or to the saint from our home town. Intercessory prayer is an important part of Christian belief and our devotion to a saint indicates that we have formed an intimate friendship with that saint who, perhaps, provides guidance and solace.

WE INVITE YOU TO LIGHT A CANDLE THAT REMAINS LIT FOR AN ENTIRE YEAR
