FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

My Dear Parishioners,

Let me once again say that it is my privilege to be here with you at St. Peter's Parish. Also once again let me say that I cannot go it alone. I need your help. There are certain areas where we will be needing individuals to volunteer. So I am asking that if someone taps you on the shoulder and asks for your cooperation, please think and pray about it before turning us down.

Don't forget: You are the church. Without you and your many ways of support and being a part of our community, we cannot survive. The Lord Jesus calls each of us to make a contribution beyond just our financial support. His plan is to save a world through and with His Church. That means He counts on each one of us to do something toward the building up of the Church.

You may not think so, but the slightest thing you do is noticed, needed and greatly appreciated. I am asking each person to pray for our intention here. Pray that all who are asked will say "Yes." Pray that many will step forward and pick up the slack. Pray that everyone might realize that the Lord Jesus calls each of us to make a contribution. The great St. Teresa of Avila prayed that the Lord would allow her to become His eyes, His hands, His ears, His feet, etc. so that His work and His goals might be accomplished throughout the church. Let us do no less. A "Yes I will," is always better than "No I will not."

I have been in contact with Fr. Bob and his rehab is progressing; but he probably will not be returning until late April or early May. Please continue to pray for his quick and painless recovery. We certainly need him back too.

You Brother in Christ,

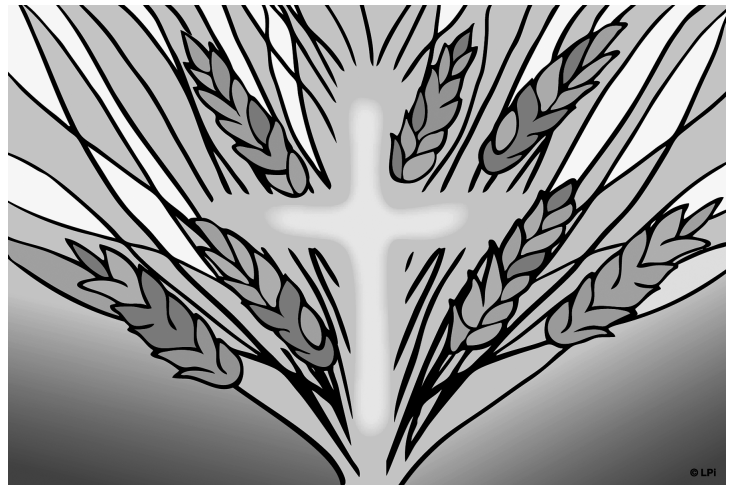

Fr. Ed Serena

Administrator

A note from Fr. Bob,

As springtime becomes more evident in the sprouting of flowers and the lengthening of the days I have been thinking about the last time I celebrated Mass at St. Peter's. I am in rehab now and learning the true value of the virtue of patience. I am coming along slowly but each week moves me forward. Last week I could bend my knee. My confinement has been made easier by the constant flow of cards, flowers, candy and best wishes. I thank all of you for your kindness in praying for me. You are in my prayers every day. To quote General Mac Arthur from WWII, "I shall return!" I am looking forward to returning to St. Peter's and being back with you (especially the 9am mass with the kids). May the anticipation of Easter renew your hearts with the joy of Christ's love.
