Dear Friends,

When I announced in Dedham two months ago that I was being transferred to St. Peter's in Plymouth, May 1st seemed a long distance off. But it is finally here and I am finally here. With any luck I'll be unpacked by the 4th of July! (I do hate moving.) I am delighted to be here, and I'm very grateful to Fr. Bob Milling and Fr. Tom Kelly and the other retired priests who served you during this long hiatus. The parish staff deserves a special word of thanks because they are the "front line" in the day to day operation of any parish. I am looking forward to meeting you and learning about St. Peter's Parish. It's hard to know where to go if you don't know where you've been. We begin a new chapter in our faith life together. Our gracious God always has a plan for us. My hope is together we will discover that plan and continue the work of building the Kingdom of God.
