THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

(The Seventh and Tenth Commandments)

"You shall not steal."

"You shall not covet your neighbor's property"

Our Lord taught us to be poor in spirit. This means that we are neither too attached to nor desirous of material things.

The 7th and 10th Commandments regulate the possession and use of the things God has entrusted to us and to others.

The sins against the seventh and tenth commandments are:

stealing, cheating, vandalism, acceptance of bribes, wasting time, careless work charging exorbitant prices use of false weights and measures, violation of contracts and agreements envy of another's possessions,

We keep these commandments:

by respecting the property of others
by paying our just debts
by dealing honestly in business
by paying a living wage to our employees
by doing a full day's work for a full day's pay
by living up to our agreements and contracts
by returning things we have found
