IMPORTANT!

Starting this weekend of October 10th and 11th the cup will not be administered during the weekday or the weekend Masses. The sign of peace may also be acknowledged by a nod of the head instead of a handshake. The changes are necessary because of the threat of the Flu. These precautions will help to protect those who could suffer serious health issues if they are exposed.

From the Outlines of the Catholic Faith based on the Catechism of the Catholic Church.....

The Chief Truths taught by Jesus Christ through the Catholic Church are contained in the Apostle's Creed.

“I believe in the resurrection of the body.”

At the end of the world the bodies of all who have died shall be raised and reunited with their souls.

“I believe in life everlasting.”

The just will dwell in HEAVEN forever.

The wicked will descend into HELL.

At the last judgment, the bodies of all men and women will be reunited with their souls. The wicked, with bodies and souls reunited, will descend into hell. The just, with bodies and souls reunited, will dwell in heaven.

At the last judgment, all those in purgatory with bodies and souls reunited will be among the just. After the last judgment, there will be no further purification. Purgatory will cease.

“Amen”

So be it. “Amen” expresses our assent and acceptance.

They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, “Then who can be saved?” Jesus looked at them and said, “For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God.” — Mk 10:26-27
