People's Prayer for Priests

Dear Lord,
we pray that the Blessed Mother
wrap her mantle around your priests
and through her intercession
strengthen them for their ministry.
We pray that Mary will guide your priests
to follow her own words,
"Do whatever He tells you" (Jn 2:5).
May your priests have the heart of St. Joseph,

Mary's most chaste spouse.
May the Blessed Mother's own pierced heart inspire them to embrace
all who suffer at the foot of the cross.
May your priests be holy,
filled with the fire of your love
seeking nothing but your greater glory
and the salvation of souls.
Amen.
Saint John Vianney, pray for us

Some young people who ran away from home have gotten sick with AIDS. We have opened a home in New York for AIDS patients, who find themselves among the most unwanted people of today.

What a tremendous change has been brought about in their lives just because of a few sisters who take care of them, and have made a home for them!

A home of love!

A gift of love!

A place, perhaps the only place, where they feel loved, where they are somebody to someone. This has changed their lives in such a way that they die a most beautiful death. Not one of them has yet died in distress.

The other day, a sister called to tell me that one of the young men was dying. But, strange to say, he couldn't die. He was struggling with death.

So she asked him, "What is it? What is wrong?"

And he said, "Sister, I cannot die until I ask my father to forgive me."

So the sister found out where the father was, and she called him. And something extraordinary happened, like a living page from the Gospel: The father came and embraced his son and cried, "My son! My beloved son!"

And the son begged the father, "Forgive me!"

Two hours later the young man died.

What is stewardship: "A Christian Steward is one who receives God's gifts gratefully, cherishes and cares for those gifts in a responsible and accountable manner, shares them in justice and love with others, and returns them with increase to the Lord."

This definition is from A Disciple's Response, from the National Conference of Catholic Bishops.

Question of the Week Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time - July 12, 2009

Amos 7:12-15, Ephesians 1:3-14, Mark 6: 7-13 - We work together to share the Good News of Jesus.

Question for Children: To whom would you announce the Good News about Jesus? Who do you think most needs to hear this message?

Question for Youth: When Jesus sent the disciples out, he was preparing them for the future when he would be gone. How are you growing in your own faith and preparing for a life as a Christian disciple?

Question for Adults: Why do you think Jesus sent them out two by two, rather than alone?

Saint of the Week - Clelia Barbieri

Clelia Barbieri has the distinction of being the youngest founder of a religious community in the history of the Roman Catholic Church. Clelia was born on February 13th, 1847 in Budrie, a small village on the outskirts of Bologna, Italy. Interestingly, her father, Giuseppe, came from the poorest family in the village, while her mother, Giacinta, came from the most powerful family. As might be expected, Giacinta's family strongly opposed the marriage, but the girl persisted and, after the wedding, moved into the Barbieri family home. The strong faith of her mother and father was passed on to Clelia. As a young girl, Clelia asked her mother, "How can I become a saint?" Though well on her way to sainthood even at an early age, Clelia also learned weaving and sewing and, thus, helped to support her family.

When Clelia was eight years old, her father died in a cholera epidemic. Her uncle, the town doctor, invited her mother, Clelia, and a younger sister to live in a comfortable house near the parish church. Clelia began to spend much of her time in the church praying. But Clelia did not neglect her sense of duty to her family. She continued to work at weaving with the young girls of Budrie and became recognized as a leader among them.

While it was unusual at the time for someone so young to receive Eucharist, Clelia's holiness was recognized by her pastor and she received her First Holy Communion at the age of eleven. It was at this time that she underwent her first mystical experience and felt strong contrition for sins, her own and those of all mankind. It was also at this time that she felt the first stirrings of her calling, a ministry to the poor and most downtrodden.

In this period of time, as has happened in many times and places in the history of the Church, a general apathetic attitude toward their faith was growing among the people of Italy. An organization, The Christian Catechism Workers, had been established to counteract this attitude. Clelia joined the group, but, as the youngest, was considered the least important and she was given the menial tasks to perform. Clelia accepted this, but her attitude and holiness were soon recognized by many adults in the group who began to look to her for direction in spreading the teachings of the Church.

Clelia also brought this mission back to the girls with whom she worked in Budrie. They banded together to bring the Catechism to the poor. In 1868, the group formed a religious community, the Little Sisters of Our Lady of Sorrows to work with the poor boys and girls of the area; teaching catechism and taking care of their temporal needs. Although younger than many in her community, Clelia was addressed by her sisters as "Mother" up until the time of her death.

Having had a dormant form of tuberculosis through most of her life, Clelia was to pass away from this disease on July 13, 1870 at the young age of twenty three.

Pope John Paul II canonized this saint on April 9, 1989. She is honored in her country on July 13.

Clelia's Message Today: Leadership is not just the calling of the older and more educated. It is a God given talent which may be given to anyone.
