People's Prayer for Priests

Dear Lord,
we pray that the Blessed Mother wrap her mantle around your priests and through her intercession strengthen them for their ministry.
We pray that Mary will guide your priests
to follow her own words,
"Do whatever He tells you" (Jn 2:5).
May your priests have the heart of St. Joseph,

Mary's most chaste spouse.
May the Blessed Mother's own pierced heart inspire them to embrace all who suffer at the foot of the cross.
May your priests be holy,
filled with the fire of your love
seeking nothing but your greater glory and the salvation of souls.
Amen.
Saint John Vianney, pray for us

Christian Stewardship a way of Life

God has given us everything we have. Jesus Christ is God's greatest gift to us. Stewardship tells us to share a portion of our God-given time, talents and treasure with others, so that God's gifts, including Jesus Christ, may be given to those who do not know or understand him.

Christian stewardship provides spirituality that people can take home from church, exercise at work and express through personal involvement in the church and community. It is not project-minded or job-oriented; it is a way of life ... for a lifetime. Understanding stewardship helps us to become aware that God is the ultimate giver of the gifts we have and that we should give back to God and others. Giving back to God should be from the top ... not from what may be left over; sharing God's grace should be from the heart.

ship helps us to become aware that God is the ultimate giver of the gifts we have and that we should give back to God and others. Giving back to God should be from the top ... not from what may be left over; sharing God's grace should be from the heart.

Celebration of the Sacrament of Marriage always involves the entire church. The following couple is making this explicit by inviting all to participate in their celebration:

Allison Weber & Brandon Arbach

Saturday, August 15, 2009, 6:15pm, Basilica

Sacrament of Marriage: the home is the domestic church. At the celebration of the sacrament of marriage, the church and the couple come together to effect, celebrate and witness the establishment of a new domestic church. As a church we take our part seriously. That is why we take time and make great efforts to do some immediate preparation with the couple for their new ministry. The diocese asks that a couple come to the church at least 6 months before their wedding date.

Frontier Village will host musical groups during August at 7:00pm. Cosmotion (The St. James Basilica Youth Ministry Musical Group) will perform on Thursday, August 13.

Are you interested in an at Home Ministry? Do you Knit, Crochet or Quilt? Our 4 parishes are literally wrapping people in prayer. At various times of need, a person may need a visible symbol of Christ's presence and care. We hope a Prayer Shawl will fulfill that need. If you are willing, contact our parish nurse Mary Ellen Kropp at 252-4373 or Shirley Wallace at 252-0478.

Brochures are available at the church entrances and parish office.

Garden Produce: Has your garden produced more than you can use? Bring it to the west entry of the church. Then people who have no garden can use what they need.

FACE Fact: The Foundation for the Advancement of Christian Education (FACE) is St. John's Academy endowment fund. Annually, FACE investment earnings are provided to St. John's while the donor's original gift remains in the endowment fund generating future investment earnings. This results in the donor's gift becoming an "everlasting gift" to St. John's Academy.

Our sympathy and remember in prayer the families of those who died recently: Robert Kauphusman husband of Loraine, father of Joan; Don McCommon grandfather to Gina (Les) Hogan and Tara Opdah, sister to Darlene (Mick) Hogan; Kathy Jacobs, mother to Blaine (Sherry) Jacobs; Marilyn Koehn, mother-in-law to Colleen (Kevin) Koehn.

In your prayers please remember our friends and relatives who are deployed in Iraq and overseas: (new names are in parentheses and Italics)

Kevin Andersen	Jake McClean	Daniel Shealy
Ryan Carroll	Leah Nasset	Blaine Williams
Fr. Jack Herron	Christopher Olsen	Tony Wolf
Nick Kluck	Mark Sad

(If you know of new people, please let us know.)

In your prayers please remember our sick: (new names are in parentheses and italics) To make things more personal, we include names for two weeks. Behind each name is the neighborhood or outlying parish with which they are connected. Thus we ask the neighborhood or outlying parish to continue praying for them. If you don't remember your neighborhood you can check the map at the church west entrance.

If you know of anyone sick or homebound or someone that needs special prayers, please call Sharon at the parish office, 252-0119, or send e-mail to skbosch@hotmail.com. We want to minister to people in their needs.

BOWING AT MASS

Just a reminder that during the Creed we bow at the words,

"By the power of the Holy Spirit, he was born of the Virgin Mary and became man."

We bow because this simple gesture reminds us of what Jesus did for us.

Question of the Week – 1 Kings 19: 4-8, Ephesians 4:30-5:2, John 6: 41-51 ,
Jesus the Living Bread

Question for Children: Name one way that your faith nourishes you? How does it help your life?

Question for Youth: Bread nourishes us physically, and Jesus as the living bread nourishes spiritually. How can you be more open to Jesus and the ways that he can feed you?

Question for Adults: What nourishes your life? What does the phrase "living bread" mean for you?

Saint of the Week Saint Apollinaris, Bishop, martyr, d. c. 79AD

Early writings about this saint are, in some cases, based on myth and, in others, confused with either a later saint or a heretic of the same name. As an early writer pointed out, however, Apollinaris' reputation for holiness and miracles authenticated him as a bona fide saint.

Apollinaris is said to be a native of Antioch and a follower of Saint Peter. While no firm evidence exists to support it, some early writers have suggested that he was among the seventy-two sent out by Jesus (Lk10:1). In any case, he is said to have traveled with Saint Peter from Antioch where, sometime later, Peter ordained him as bishop and sent him to Ravenna.

Soon after his arrival, Apollinaris performed his first miracle when a Centurion asked him to cure his son who was blind. When Apollinaris made the sign of the cross on the boy's eyes, his sight was instantly restored. Word of this miracle spread quickly through the city and, a day or so later, another senior Roman officer sought him out and asked him to cure his wife's long standing illness. This he did.

Word of his miracles brought many people to Apollinaris for instruction and, soon, a Christian community was flourishing in the city. To serve this growing community, the bishop ordained priests and deacons.

Pagan priests, seeing the success that Apollinaris was having, aroused the people against him and caused him to be beaten to near death and left on the seashore. Christians in his community cared for him and nursed him back to health.

Sometime later, during the reign of the emperor Vespasian, Apollinaris was again arrested. This time he was stretched on a rack and plunged into boiling oil. When he survived this treatment, he was exiled to Illyria (present day Croatia) across the Adriatic Sea.

In his exile, Apollinaris evangelized many of the people of Illyria until, when an oracle ceased speaking, the pagans again beat him and put him on a ship returning to Italy. Soon he was seized and beaten again. He is said to have died from this treatment in the year 79AD.

Saint Apollinaris is the patron of those suffering from gout and epilepsy. An optional memorial honors him on July 20 in the United States (July 23 elsewhere).

Apollinaris' Message Today: Few of us have faith as strong as Apollinaris and might break down in the face of the trials which he faced, but God is always there for us.

Do you pray often that God will give you the strength to cope with the trials which you face?
