FAMILY PERSPECTIVE Listen to Jesus in today's Gospel "Stop making my Father's house a marketplace." Has your home become more a place of business rather than a sanctuary of love and intimacy? Make your home a haven for your family, a harbor of safety from the stormy seas of life.

MARRIAGE MOMENTS "Love is a decision."
(Marriage Encounter motto) Of course couples in love have strong feelings of attraction to each other, but keeping the love going takes an act of the will for emotions fade. With care, however, the emotions that accompany love can usually be rekindled.

PARENTING POINTERS "Don't worry that children never listen to you; worry that they are always watching you." (Robert Fulghum) When in your child's presence today, be mindful of how you speak to and treat others. Of course we should do this all the time, but it will be hard enough to be truly conscious of this for even one day. Try it today.

Intentions for 12NOON Mass are available throughout the Lenten Season. Please call or stop in the Parish Office to have your loved ones remembered.

*"Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. We ask this in the name of Jesus. Amen."*

Dear Parishioner,

Our Parish of Christ the King officially becomes a tithing parish next weekend, March 21ST & 22ND.

Becoming a tithing parish takes generosity and courage, so as to live out our Christian Charity as instructed in 1 Peter 4:10, "As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace."

Join me as we strive with open hearts to understand that our treasures are not just for our benefit, but given that we may love one another as we have been loved.

Let us strive to share our treasures in a sacrificial way that we might understand the grace that comes from giving so that in all things God may be glorified.

Next weekend we will hear from witnesses, Mary Ward and Joe Seeber, encouraging us to become tithers. In living a spirituality of tithing, they have discovered that God is not outdone in generosity.

May God give us the gift of tithing, and trust and peace that comes with it.

Fr. Wallace

The 2009 House of Charity - Bishop's Annual Appeal seeks to raise $7.25 million to provide care, respect, justice, peace and dignity for every soul in the Diocese. Remember, there are different ways to donate: Matching Gifts-Employers often match employee donations to charitable organizations. Securities Stocks, mutual funds, bonds, IRAs and retirement funds provide unique opportunities for giving. Planned Gifts Charitable Gift Annuities, Charitable Remainder and Lead Trusts, Life Insurance, Life Income plans and more offer tax savings and increased income while donating to your Church. For more information, call 856-583-6127.

Our Parish goal is $160,000.
To date, we have received $67,520.
Thank you!

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES COLLECTION

When you donate to the Catholic Relief Services, you are not giving just your money. You are giving hope...you are transferring faith and love over thousands of miles to Jesus in disguise. Your generosity to our second collection next weekend is very much appreciated!

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"You shall not crave idols for yourself in the shape of anything in the sky above or on the earth below or in the waters beneath the earth." (Exodus 20:4)

Have you created idols for yourself in earthly shapes? An idol, which blocks stewardship, can be in shape of money, sports, fashions, travel or anything else we value more than God and His word to us.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

colloquially St. Paddy's Day or Paddy's Day!

In the past, Saint Patrick's Day was celebrated as a religious holiday. It became a public holiday in 1903, by the Money Bank.
(Ireland) Act 1903, an Act of the United Kingdom Parliament introduced by the Irish MP James O'Mara. O'Mara later introduced the law which required that pubs be closed on March 17TH, a provision which was repealed only in the 1970s.

The first St. Patrick's Day parade held in the Irish Free State was held in Dublin in 1931 and was reviewed by the then Minister of Defence Desmond Fitzgerald.
Although secular celebrations now exist, the holiday remains a religious observance in Ireland, for both the Church of Ireland and Roman Catholic Church.

It was only in the mid-1990s that the Irish government began a campaign to use Saint Patrick's Day to showcase Ireland and its culture. The government set up a group called St. Patrick's Festival, with the aim to:

—Offer a national festival that ranks amongst all of the greatest celebrations in the world and promote excitement throughout Ireland via innovation, creativity, grassroots involvement, and marketing activity.

—Provide the opportunity and motivation for people of Irish descent, (and those who sometimes wish they were Irish) to attend and join in the imaginative and expressive celebrations.

—Project, internationally, an accurate image of Ireland
as a creative, professional and sophisticated country with wide appeal, as we approach the new millennium.

The first Saint Patrick's Festival was held on March 17, 1996. In 1997, it became a three-day event, and by 2000 it was a four-day event. By 2006, the festival was five days long.

St. Patrick's Blue, not green, was the colour long-associated with St. Patrick. Green, the colour most widely associated with Ireland, with Irish people, and with St. Patrick's Day in modern times, may have gained its prominence through the phrase "the wearing of the green," meaning to wear a shamrock on one's clothing. At many times in Irish history, to do so was seen as a sign of Irish nationalism or loyalty to the Roman Catholic faith. St. Patrick used the shamrock, a three-leaved plant, to explain the Holy Trinity to the pre-Christian Irish. The wearing of and display of shamrocks and shamrock-inspired designs have become a ubiquitous feature of the saint's holiday. The change to Ireland's association with green rather than blue probably began around the 1750's.
