FAMILY PERSPECTIVE In today's gospel, the disciples recognized Jesus only after they ate with Him. Only then did their fear leave them. Perhaps we would relieve anxiety in our homes if we shared in more focused family meals.

MARRIAGE MOMENTS It's so tempting when another insults or hurts you to reply in kind. Tempting, but not helpful to your marriage. It may seem counter-intuitive to suck it up, but it's not a new idea. Consider the scripture "Do not return evil for evil, or insult for insult." (1Peter 3:9)

PARENTING POINTERS April 22ND was Earth Day. We are called to be good stewards of the earth locally and in our own home.

Please remember to return your Mother's Day remembrance envelopes as soon as possible.

ON THE JOURNEY

We have a long way to go, but we are confident that our parishioners will be as generous as their means permit in these hard economic times.

Thank you!

WHAT IS A HOME MISSION DIOCESE?

Home mission dioceses in the United States -- the Deep South, Appalachia, the Rocky Mountains, the Southwest, Alaska -- are characterized by a lack of resources to provide basic pastoral services for the faithful. Home mission parishes often struggle with priests shortages, poverty among parishioners, difficult isolated terrain, religious hostility and other circumstances that impact a parish's ability to practice the faith. In 2007, about 4% of United States dioceses were considered mission dioceses.

The Archdiocese of Anchorage has 11,500 registered Catholic families, 140,000 square miles, and only 30 active diocesan priests. Sadly, such shortages occur often in the United States mission dioceses.

Of the 29 counties in the geographically sprawling Diocese of Salt Lake City, only 16 have a resident pastor. These mission dioceses need funding for ministerial training, seminaries, and religious education in order to nurture the faith and administer basic pastoral care in the rural areas of the state.

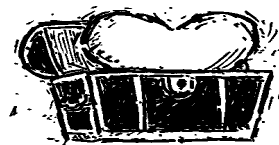

Please give generously in today's Catholic Home Missions Appeal.

EXPLORING THE SUNDAY READINGS

The monthly pamphlet outlining the Sunday readings for May is available in the Church vestibule.

Small Christian Community members meet in homes to discuss the weekly scripture and to apply it to the faith experiences in their everyday lives. To find out more about faith sharing at Christ the King Parish, contact Arlene Boerum at 856-546-8056 or rboerum@aol.com.

STEWARDSHIP IS A WAY OF LIFE Tithing is God's Plan for Giving

Abraham was prepared to sacrifice his only son, Isaac. St. Paul reminds us that God Himself "did not spare his own Son." Are my gifts to the Lord - of my resources, of my time, of myself - also sacrificial?
