PRAYERS FOR THE SICK

If you wish to add someone to the bulletin prayer list, please call the parish center 429-1600. The list of names will be updated every three months.

FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

We naturally avoid and "reject" difficult moments. These difficult times can be a "cornerstone" uniting our family and linking us through a difficult experience which becomes a common bond.

INTERCESSIONS FOR LIFE

For every child who lives in his mother's womb: that he will be loved and cherished. We pray to the Lord.

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

You know your spouse is not perfect, but still it's human to want him or her to be. Forgive an imperfection of your spouse today. It needn't be major. It needn't even be spoken.

PARISH PAY

Parishioners are now contributing to weekly parish stewardship collections through credit card or automatic payment from their checking account. Please consider using this convenient service.

Visit www.parishpay.com to sign up on-line or by calling 1-866-PARISH-1.

HOUSE OF CHARITY

Our parish goal is $165,000. To date we have collected $145,848.01. To make a donation or for further information, contact Theresa Hughes at 856-429-7736.

Thank you for your concern for the less fortunate.

Lord, give our parish family the desire to do your will, giving generously of ourselves that through our Stewardship, we may advance the mission of the Church

Please remember the parish poor boxes that support our own St. Vincent DePaul Society. Thank you.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." (Luke 12:34)

Stewardship challenges us to look into our hearts to understand the priority of the things we treasure. We can then see clearly to give of our treasure through discipleship.

RESPECT LIFE SUNDAY

Sometimes our country seems like a vineyard which has gone to seed. Where once fertile hillsides and rich vines grew, we find nothing but wild grapes. Our country was founded on the belief that God had granted an inalienable right to life to every human being. Yet the easy accessibility of abortion on demand, our lack of concern for the elderly and those most vulnerable seem to be signs of a nation gone astray.

Such was the condition of Jerusalem in the time of the prophet Isaiah, when God asks them what he has done to deserve this sad state of affairs, and threatens to let the thorns and the briars take over this wild vineyard, where he looks for justice and sees only bloodshed.

Today's Gospel completes the analogy. Jesus tells the story of "the landowner, who planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a tower. Then he leased it to tenants and went on a journey." Of course, the tenants neglect the vineyard, but worse, when the landlord sends his servants and then his son to inspect the vineyard, the tenants kill his emissaries.

"What will the owner of the vineyard do to those tenants when he comes?," Jesus asks his disciples. It does not take a scripture scholar to figure out that they will be punished for their mismanagement of the talents which God has given them.

This is the reason why there is an urgency to the pro-life movement today. For there are doctors who have been given the gift of compassion and healing who have used their talents to abort babies. There are counselors who have been given the compassion to help those in distress, who urge people to choose to abort their child. There are parents to whom God has given the power to create life with him, who advise their pregnant daughter to get an abortion. There are caregivers for the elderly who refuse to respect their human dignity, and there are men and women in all sectors of society who refuse to use their talents for the promotion of the Gospel of Life.

In his letter to the Philippians today, Saint Paul gives us good counsel on how to promote the Gospel of Life. He advises that "whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things." May we commit ourselves to the protection of all human life from conception to natural death that this nation may, once again, be a land known for its honor and its love of the truth, guided by the God in whom we trust.

RESPECT FOR LIFE CORNER

It's usually easy to pray for our own children. Their needs are so apparent to us. Since October is Respect Life month, pray today, NOW, THIS MOMENT, not only for your own children, but for all children in our world, both born and unborn; for all lives that are threatened or suffering.

OCTOBER IS DOMESTIC ABUSE AWARENESS MONTH

On the weekends of October 11/12TH, 18/19TH, and 25/26TH we will be collecting items for the Camden County Women's Center, which is a shelter for women and children, trying to free themselves from an abusive home environment.

These are families from all walks of life, all neighborhoods, and all socio-economic levels whose cries often go unheard. This is our seventh year of donating to the shelter and each year Christ the King has been increasingly more generous.

Below is the Shelter's Wish List. Please know there is a special need for blankets, towels and washcloths.

There will be an area in the back of church specifically marked for these donations. As in past years, if you have additional items or if it is inconvenient for you to bring them to church, you may drop them off at the back door of: 321 Jefferson Avenue. Any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Janet Hutchinson, 428-7397.

SHARE THE JOY OF READING AND MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN A CHILD'S LIFE

The BookMates Program is looking for caring adults to serve as volunteer reading mentors for students in grades K-2. Volunteers read on a one-to-one basis with children in one of 26 participating Title I schools throughout Burlington and Camden Counties. Additional volunteers are particularly needed in Camden City.

All BookMates volunteers receive training and ongoing support. The only requirements are a love of reading, a love of children, and one hour per week (the same day and time each week) during the school day from October to June.

Training sessions for new volunteers will be held throughout the fall and early winter at the Weinberg Jewish Community Campus in Cherry Hill. Attendance is required at one session only.

For more information or to register for a training, contact: Julie Silver, BookMates Program Coordinator at 856-751-9500, ext. 143, or email jsilver@jfedsnj.org.

The South Jersey Interfaith Coalition for Literacy/BookMates Program is a social justice project of the Jewish Community Relations Council of Southern New Jersey in conjunction with the Catholic-Jewish Commission of Southern New Jersey.

KEEPING CHILDREN SAFER ON THE INTERNET

A presentation by the N.J.
