FAMILY PERSPECTIVE Today's gospel speaks about "unworthy wedding guests." What makes a "worthy" guest? Presence and presents are not enough. The greatest gift we can give is our support to the couple as they voyage through life together.

INTERCESSIONS FOR LIFE For all who work to defend life: that God might reward them for their goodness. We pray to the Lord:

MARRIAGE MOMENTS Intimacy is not only sexual. It takes great trust to pour out your heart to God in the presence of your spouse. A beginning step may be a short period of silent prayer in each other's presence. Take a step today.

PARENTING POINTERS There's a growing group of parents in our culture who frequently get mocked or put on a pedestal: stay-at-home Dads. For awhile my husband was the only father in our babysitting co-op. This is not going above and beyond the call of duty, it's simply responding to the unique needs of your family. Respect and support parents of all stripes. God knows it's not an easy job, no matter what your gender.

"Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. We ask this in the name of Jesus. Amen."

....NOTES FROM OUR MUSIC MINISTRY....

*"God has bestowed upon His people the gift of song.
God dwells within each human person, in the place where music takes its source.
Indeed, God, the giver of song, is present whenever His people sing his praises."*

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all."

(Mark 10:43a,44)

In a life committed to Stewardship, we are called to "possess lightly." Jesus taught about the danger of clutching to material possessions, as a way to be first and pointed to the real treasures available to us in a disciple's life.

RESPECT FOR LIFE CORNER

God's creation is one and it is good. The concerns for non-violence, sustainable development, justice and peace, and care for our environment are of vital importance for humanity. They cannot, however, be understood apart from a profound reflection upon the innate dignity of every human life from conception to natural death: a dignity conferred by God himself and thus inviolable.

OCTOBER IS DOMESTIC ABUSE AWARENESS MONTH

On the weekends of October 11/12TH, 18/19TH, and 25/26TH we will be collecting items for the Camden County Women's Center, which is a shelter for women and children, trying to free themselves from an abusive home environment.

These are families from all walks of life, all neighborhoods, and all socio-economic levels whose cries often go unheard. This is our seventh year of donating to the shelter and each year Christ the King has been increasingly more generous.

Below is the Shelter's Wish List. Please know there is a special need for blankets, towels and washcloths.

There will be an area in the back of church specifically marked for these donations. As in past years, if you have additional items or if it is inconvenient for you to bring them to church, you may drop them off at the back door of: 321 Jefferson Avenue. Any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Janet Hutchinson, 428-7397.

SHARE THE JOY OF READING AND MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN A CHILD'S LIFE

The BookMates Program is looking for caring adults to serve as volunteer reading mentors for students in grades K-2. Volunteers read on a one-to-one basis with children in one of 26 participating Title I schools throughout Burlington and Camden Counties. Additional volunteers are particularly needed in Camden City.

All BookMates volunteers receive training and ongoing support. The only requirements are a love of reading, a love of children, and one hour per week (the same day and time each week) during the school day from October to June.

Training sessions for new volunteers will be held throughout the fall and early winter at the Weinberg Jewish Community Campus in Cherry Hill. Attendance is required at one session only.

For more information or to register for a training, contact: Julie Silver, BookMates Program Coordinator at 856-751-9500, ext. 143, or email jsilver@jfedsnj.org.

The South Jersey Interfaith Coalition for Literacy/BookMates Program is a social justice project of the Jewish Community Relations Council of Southern New Jersey in conjunction with the Catholic-Jewish Commission of Southern New Jersey.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

It's been said that Catholic Social Justice Teaching is one of the church's best kept secrets. Holy Saviour Church, Westmont, will host a special evening with a presentation about bringing the Gospel & Catholic Social Teaching to life in our daily lives. Join us on Tuesday, October 14TH, 7:00PM in McDade Hall, which is behind the church on Virginia Avenue. Light refreshments following. Please call with any questions 856-986-2436.

Ten easy steps can help guide people to having clear consciences in regard to how to vote on Election Day, Tuesday November 4TH:

- 1. VOTE! The Catechism tells us that voting is a moral obligation. Bring your voting decisions to prayer.
- 2. Know the candidates. Be sure you know where the candidates stand on the issues.
- 3. Reject the disqualified. If a candidate said, "I support terrorism," you wouldn't say, "I disagree with you on terrorism, but what's your health care plan?" Similarly, those who permit the destruction of innocent life by abortion disqualify themselves from consideration.
- 4. Distinguish policy from principle. Most disagreements between candidates and political platforms do not have to do with principle, but rather with policy. The dispute over whether there is a right to life does deal with principle, and is therefore more fundamental.
- 5. Weigh other issues properly. Not all issues have equal weight. The Catholic Church teaches that war and capital punishment, for example, may at times be morally justified, but abortion and euthanasia never are.
- 6. Keep your loyalty focused on Jesus. Your loyalty to Jesus Christ must be stronger than your loyalty to any political party.
- 7. Remember, the party matters. Elections do not only put individual candidates into power; they put political parties into power. Consider what the parties stand for, and how the outcome of the election affects the balance of power.
- 8. Distinguish "choosing evil from limiting evil." If two opposing candidates both support abortion, then ask, "Which of the two candidates will do less harm to unborn children?" This is not "choosing the lesser of two evils," but rather choosing to limit an evil, and the choice to limit an evil is a good.
- 9. Support the candidate with more than your vote! Additional activities include donating to the campaign, volunteering for the campaign, handing out literature for the candidate, making phone calls and visits on the candidate's behalf, sending emails, using yard signs and bumper stickers, and praying for the candidate. Elections are not contests between two candidates. They are contests between two teams. The bigger and more active team will bring in the most votes.
- 10. Mobilize as many other voters as possible. Each of us has one vote, but each of us can mobilize hundreds, even thousands of votes. Focus on mobilizing those who agree with you rather than convincing those who don't. If you can take the day off on Election Day, do so. Spend the day contacting people by phone and email, reminding them to vote, and helping them at the polls.

HAVING DONE ALL THIS, WE CAN REJOICE IN A CLEAR CONSCIENCE, AND TRUST THE LORD TO BRING ABOUT THE VICTORY FOR A CULTURE OF LIFE! -Our Sunday Visitor
