FAMILY PERSPECTIVE Halloween is the night before All Saints Day. Today's gospel asks us to concentrate on loving our neighbor. Our closest neighbors are the people with whom we live. Anyone can be "saint" in front of strangers but the daily acts of patience, acceptance, forgiveness, listening, and dying to oneself within the family are religious acts. Family life is the turf of sanctity.

INTERCESSIONS FOR LIFE For all who are about to die: that we might learn from them and cherish their presence in every remaining moment given to them by God. We pray to the Lord:

MARRIAGE MOMENTS The election is at hand. Is it possible to love and respect those with different political opinions? Consider how you resolve serious differences of opinion with your spouse. Learn from your marriage. We must go on living together.

SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

The Solemnity of All Saints on November 1ST falls on Saturday and is NOT a Holy Day of Obligation this year. Because it falls on Saturday, the obligation is commuted to Sunday, November 2ND, the Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed (All Souls). There will be no Mass on Friday evening.

RESPECT FOR LIFE CORNER

Over and above all the compelling reasons that nature gives us to respect, protect, love and serve life -- every human life -- the Incarnation...confirms us in an even deeper certitude. The eternal Son of God who took flesh from the Virgin Mary, was born and lived and died for our salvation has uplifted all humanity to a further dignity and destiny: to share in His divine life forever -- in the communion of the Most Blessed Trinity.

-Cardinal Justin Rigali

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS CORNER

With the election just days away, the issues involved are more important than ever regarding the candidate's position on pro-life, same sex marriages and a whole litany of "hot button" issues. The Knights of Columbus are asking voters to vote their conscience and continue to pray for our Country, our Fighting Forces and our Church.

Plan to attend our Health Fair November 20TH at the Marian House 507 S. Kings Highway. More and more health care representatives are joining us to make this day very meaningful. Again, the Cherry Hill Police will be on hand to provide ID kits for children. Stop by and take part from 12N - 6:00PM.

CTK Pancake Breakfast is coming up November 23RD. The Knight's will be busy cooking and we hope you will support this effort. Vivat Jesus!
