Are you looking for a greater understanding of what we Catholics believe, and why?

Do you wish you could better explain our Catholic faith to other family members, friends or co-workers?

Are you seeking to develop a closer relationship to Jesus Christ through His Church?

If yes, then please join us Thursday, June 10, 2010 at 7:00 p.m. for:

“Core Beliefs of the Catholic Church”
A talk by Dr. Angela Franks and Dr. David Franks

ARCHDIOCESE OF BOSTON ~~ 2010 CATHOLIC APPEAL

Our faith teaches that all we have is a gift from God. As disciples, you and I are called to act as thoughtful stewards of our gifts, to nurture and share them in service to others. In doing so, we answer Christ’s call to love, we are drawn closer to God, and we are brought to a deeper understanding of our faith. One of the best ways we can answer Christ’s call and share more fully in the mission of our local Church is through participation in the annual Catholic Appeal. While the first few months of the campaign have been encouraging, there is still much work to be done. These are very challenging economic times and I am deeply grateful to all who have and will continue to support our Church. We have received $32,445 from 206 households, reaching 65.5% of our parish goal of $49,500. Remember, our parish will receive 25 percent of all funds we raise above our goal. For more information, please visit www.BostonCatholicAppeal.com or call 617-779-3700.

Thank you!

2010 FIRST COMMUNICANTS

We pray that this gift of the Eucharist will draw them into an unending friendship with the Lord.

SAINT MARY SCHOOL NEWS

INTERNS – Many thanks to our Saint Mary School Young Alums who have interned at our school for the past few weeks: John Belmonte '06 and Meaghan O'Brien '06. As part of their volunteer community service requirement for graduation, both have helped wherever needed. John, who will graduate from Malden Catholic on May 22nd and attend Suffolk University, wants to major in Marketing and minor in Education. When asked, "Why St. Mary's?" John noted that he "may want to teach elementary students, wants a first-hand experience, and wants to give back to my alma mater." He is certain that he made "a positive connection to the kids." Meaghan, who will graduate from Bishop Fenwick on May 28th and attend Emerson, wants to major in Literature and Publishing, and has been accepted into the Honors Program. She "thinks Saint Mary's is a wonderful community" and wants to "reconnect with my roots," and she is most thankful for her SMS education. We have truly been blessed with their service.

VOLUNTEERS – thank you to Mrs. Nancy Guinivan, a retired Reading Teacher, who assisted in Grade 2 for two weeks. Second graders are reading books by Patricia Polacco and conducting an author study. Mrs. Guinivan, grandmother to Molly, brought in books for the class, read to them, and taught them about the author. Their favorite book was Thundercake, especially when they followed the recipe and sampled the chocolate cake!

BOOK FAIR – Scholastic Book Fair is coming to Saint Mary School on Wednesday, June 9th. Purchase your summer reading books here!

ST. MARY'S GOLF TOURNAMENT will be held on Monday, June 7th, 1:30 PM at Beverly Golf & Tennis Club. Dust off those clubs and come join us for a day of fun and relaxation. Sign up as a single and we'll put you in a group, or bring your golfing buddies! All levels of ability are welcome. Can you sponsor a hole for $125 or golf cart for $50? Donate a mini-auction or raffle prize? Cost is $135 per person and includes greens fees, cart, dinner, awards and prizes. Or join us for Dinner only $35. Registration begins at noon. For more information, please call David or Kerry Crichton at 978 927-7450 or e-mail kerry.crichton@gmail.com.

SUMMER PROGRAMS AT SAINT MARY'S – Enrichment programs in science and art for school-age children, presented by Wicked Cool, will be offered beginning June 28th. Science teacher Barb Johnson (who also teaches at the Science Museum in Boston) will conduct classes in Robotics with Legos, Wicked Cool Med School, Wicked Cool Engineering, etc. Please contact Mrs. Johnson at Bjohnson@wickedcookforkids.com for more information.

HENRY'S Program Returns – Henry's Market, 588 Cabot St, is offering Saint Mary's School a donation program and we need your help! A donation of 7 ½% of your pre-tax purchases, made April 1st to May 30th (excluding holidays), will be given to Saint Mary's School. You must take the attached voucher and present it to the cashier prior to check-out. The cashier will then record the sale amount on the voucher, and you submit the voucher to Saint Mary's School, or drop it in the collection basket at St. Mary's Church.

From St. John Chrysostom

As long as we are sheep, we overcome and, though surrounded by countless wolves, we emerge victorious; but if we turn into wolves, we are overcome, for we love the shepherd's help. He, after all, feeds the sheep not wolves, and will abandon you if you do not let him show his power in you.

What he says is this: "Do not be upset that, as I send you out among the wolves, I bid you be as sheep and doves. I could have managed things quite differently and sent you, not to suffer evil nor to yield like sheep to the wolves, but to be fiercer than lions. But the way I have chosen is right. It will bring you greater praise and at the same time manifest my power". That is what he told Paul: My grace is enough for you, for in weakness my power is made perfect. "I intend", he says, "to deal in the same way with you". For, when he says, I am sending you out like sheep, he implies: "But do not therefore lose heart, for I know and am certain that no one will be able to overcome you".

The Lord, however, does want them to contribute something, lest everything seem to be the work of grace, and they seem to win their reward without deserving it. Therefore he adds: You must be clever as snakes and innocent as doves. But, they may object, what good is our cleverness amid so many dangers? How can we be clever when tossed about by so many waves? However great the cleverness of the sheep as he stands among the wolves – so many wolves! – what can it accomplish? However great the innocence of the dove, what good does it do him, with so many hawks swooping upon him? To all this I say: Cleverness and innocence admittedly do these irrational creatures no good, but they can help you greatly.

What cleverness is the Lord requiring here? The cleverness of a snake. A snake will surrender everything and will put up no great resistance even if its body is being cut in pieces, provided it can save its head. So you, the Lord is saying, must surrender everything but your faith: money, body, even life itself. For faith is the head and the root; keep that, and though you lose all else, you will get it back in abundance. The Lord therefore counselled the disciples to be not simply clever or innocent; rather he joined the two qualities so that they become a genuine virtue. He insisted on the cleverness of the snake so that deadly wounds might be avoided, and he insisted on the innocence of the dove so that revenge might not be taken on those who injure or lay traps for you. Cleverness is useless without innocence.

Do not believe that this precept is beyond your power. More than anyone else, the Lord knows the true natures of created things; he knows that moderation, not a fierce defence, beats back a fierce attack.
