Gregorian Chant Schola Sunday, May 23 ~ 5:00 PM Mass

The music for the 5:00 PM Mass, today, Sunday, May 23, will be led by a Gregorian Chant Schola. This small choir will sing more of the traditional chants of the Church than we're usually accustomed to hearing nowadays.

June 10, 2010—7:00 p.m., Lower Church

“Core Beliefs of the Catholic Church”

A talk by Drs. Angela and David Franks

Father Barnes and the Adult Education Committee cordially invite all parishioners to hear a talk by Drs. Angela and David Franks on our “core beliefs”—what we Catholics believe, and why. Whether you are a new convert or a “cradle Catholic”; whether you are seeking a greater understanding of our faith or already know the Magisterium inside and out; whether you are looking to better explain our Catholic faith to your children, friends and co-workers, or simply seeking a deeper, personal relationship with Christ —this talk is for you!

The Franks are a young, dynamic teaching team who have received rave reviews for their workshops and presentations on our Catholic faith, especially on issues pertaining to building a culture of life and love. Dr. Angela Franks has a doctorate in systematic theology from Boston College. Dr. David Franks also holds a doctorate in theology; he is on the faculty of Saint John’s Seminary in Brighton. Together, they coordinated the Massachusetts Catholic Conference’s marriage initiative The Future Depends on Love, and hosted a television show of the same name on CatholicTV. They also serve as Associate Directors of the Masters of Arts in Ministry program for the Archdiocese. The Franks are the proud parents of 4 children.

We hope you will join us on Thursday, June 10, 2010 at 7:00 p.m. for this discussion.

SATURDAY MORNING ~ MEN’S GROUP

St. Mary’s Men’s Group meets at 8:00 AM Saturday mornings in the Lower Church. Coffee and refreshments are provided, with talks on selected topics by members. Any questions or topic ideas please call: Ferde Rombola at 978-302-5218.

Saturday, May 22 ~ Meditative Prayer
Speaker: Doug MacDougal

Saturday, May 29 ~ Tolkien the Catholic
Speaker: Jonathan Nauman

Saturday, June 5 ~ Corpus Christi
Speaker: Michael Joens

Eucharistic Adoration is the adoration of Jesus Christ present in the Holy Eucharist. In the many Churches that have this adoration, the Eucharist is displayed in a special holder called a monstrance, and people come to pray and worship Jesus continually throughout the day and often the night. Christ’s great love for us was shown when he was crucified on the cross to pay the penalty for our sins and give us eternal life. He loves us without limit, and offers Himself to us in the Holy sacrament of the Eucharist. Can we not give Jesus a few minutes of love and adoration in return.

Adoration hours are from 7:30AM to 7:30PM.
Lower Church

ARCHDIOCESE OF BOSTON ~ 2010 CATHOLIC APPEAL

Already, thousands have pledged their support responding to the challenge to ensure the continued renewal of or faith community and the further advancement of Christ’s mission in 2010 and beyond. While many thousands can and will once again support the Appeal, the need for the Church’s ministry has only increased during these difficult economic times. Those of us who are able are called to share our gifts, in faith and love, to assure that these ministries continue to be available for those in need. I pray that you will be as generous as your means allow and join me in making a pledge to the 2010 Catholic Appeal.

In supporting the Catholic Appeal, we prepare seminarians, deacons, and lay ministers for service; we assist in program development for Catholic schools, religious education, and marriage preparation; we provide the resources for Cardinal Sean, our regional bishops, and many other critical offices to help our parishes, schools, and agencies.

We have received $32,595 from 209 households, reaching 65.8% of our parish goal of $49,500. Remember, our parish will receive 25 percent of all funds we raise above our goal. For more information, please visit www.BostonCatholicAppeal.com or call 617-779-3700. Thank you!

Dear Friends in Christ,

During the past few months, I have seen how the prayers that we offer affect others in extraordinary ways. I think particularly of those of you who so dedicatedly spend time each week in Eucharistic adoration and those of you who are homebound and offer your sufferings and prayers for the sake of others. I read recently the following passage on the website of a missionary order of priests—the Fraternity of St. Charles Borromeo. I found it compelling. Your Brother in Christ, Fr. David Barnes.

Prayer establishes a bond between our lives that would otherwise be impossible, since it leads to the discovery, like a treasure slowly lifted out of the depths of the sea, of the mysterious and profound unity in which God has bound all of humanity. Indeed, the deepest essence of prayer is intercession: "To intercede, to ask on behalf of another, is the prerogative of a heart that is in sympathy with the mercy of God. Christian intercession is an expression of the communion of saints," says the Catechism of the Catholic Church. It is the priest in particular who situates himself as one who intercedes for all – a bit like Moses, who raised his hands during the battle, and offered his sacrifice for the whole people (cf. Ex 17,8-14). This is clearly seen in the words recited at the moment of consecration: "This is my body, this is my blood, given for you." At its heart, prayer is always intercession, and intercession is always an offering of oneself. Thus when we recite the psalm, saying: "Lord, my strength, my fortress, my rock" (cf. Ps 17,3; Ps 30,4; Ps 117,14), we also say these words for those who are unable to say them. They are of decisive importance for those people as well. In this way we understand the priestly significance of baptism, and the significance of the ordained priesthood. Through the latter, in the eucharistic sacrifice, the common priesthood becomes objective supplication and offering. Here we see the cosmic value of the eucharistic sacrifice, which encompasses the entire history of the world each time it is offered. This is so true that it is impossible to celebrate Mass conscious of its nature or to participate in it attentively, without bringing to it everything that has been lived during that day, that hour, that week. Not only the people we have met, but also those whom we will never meet. In prayer – the place where everyone becomes a priest – each of us brings the mystery and life of all to Christ, and especially of those who do not pray or do not know how to pray, those who have stopped praying or have never learned how.
