

Hoodies For The Homeless

Fred Stino, an eighth grade Scout here at St. Joseph's, is working on his Ad Altere Dei (Catholic religion) medal. To meet the service project requirement he is coordinating the Youth Group's Collection of 50 hoodies to help the homeless at the St. Vincent DePaul in Middletown.

Sage Novak, St. Joseph's Anchor and Compass, has high quality Carhartt hoodies keep these people warm into the spring.

parishioner and owner of the arranged for us to purchase at cost. These hoodies will through the rest of winter and

If you would like to help with this project, please complete the below form and return it to Fred as you depart today. You can also return this to the Anchor and Compass in Deep River or the parish office with a check for $28 per hoodie by February 6th.

If you have questions contact Jim Tabor StJosephChesterYM@att.net or 860-575-7006

Name: _____ I Wish To Remain Anonymous: _____

Phone Number: _____

I would like to donate the following number of hoodies: _____ X $28

Check Amount (Made checks payable to St. Joseph's Church): _____

