

2010 KANSAS CITY YOUTH CONFERENCE

D-TEAM

D-Team stands for "Discipleship Team" - a community of faith-filled youth who help spread the Gospel message proclaimed at the Kansas City Youth Conference (KCYC) in creative ways such as performance, video or through a personal testimony. This may involve skits, pre-taping and possibly writing of scripts, and/or testimonies that will need to be memorized for the delivery.

This group will work on spiritual and prayer aspects in their lives as well as preparing for the KCYC. Candidate must be a high school student who displays leadership ability, shows intent to have a strong spiritual life, and is comfortable in front of a crowd.

TYPICAL WORK ACTIVITIES

Some of these activities will be group activities and others will be individual.

- Prayer
- Brain storming
- Creative writing sessions
- Testimony writing sessions
- Public speaking sessions
- Performing
- Video taping
- Rehearsing
- Managing costumes and props
- There may be a day where we do on-location video shoots

MISSION: The Discipleship Team exists to help teens grow in their own faith and to give them the opportunity to witness to their faith in creative ways at the Kansas City Youth Conference.

All papers are due to the diocese by May 31st. Each teen will be considered and sent a letter if chosen with dates of the upcoming meetings.
