

WWYG — Session 41
HEALING A LAME MAN
Acts 3:1-4:22

Name _____

Guide _____

1. For a little review, number these in their correct order:

- _____ Ascension Day
- _____ Christmas Eve
- _____ Easter Sunday
- _____ Good Friday
- _____ Maundy Thursday
- _____ Pentecost Festival

2. And for a little more review, fill in the blanks on the right and add one example for each.

3. Read Acts 3:11-26, Peter's speech in the temple and list the five Old Testament people he mentioned.

THE BIG IDEA — Jesus empowers his followers to do good work and to accept the hostilities they encounter.

JESUS WAS A . . .

H _____

L _____

M _____

4. Give examples of each of the three Ps in today's story.

PRAYER	PROCLAMATION	POWER

5. In your Bible, underline or highlight these four verses:

Acts 3:14-15 — Acts 3:26 — Acts 4:12 — Acts 4:19-20

Circle your favorite, and copy it here:

6. Jesus was a healer, and his apostles continued his healing ministry after he was gone. We, too, are Jesus' followers and can continue his healing ministry. Read the section on "How to Care for the Sick," pages 110-111 in The Lutheran Handbook, and list the three suggestions here:

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

7. Think of some way you can be a healer today. Be specific. Exactly what can/will you do?

8. For extra credit, read the rest of the story in Acts 4:23-31. Underline or highlight Acts 4:29-30 (beginning with "We are your servants. . . .") Rewrite this prayer to make it sound like your own prayer. Begin like this:

Lord, I am your servant
