

Looking for something more?

Ever get tired of the same old Friday night? Going out for dinner, watching TV, sitting at home in your pajamas, catching a movie? Whatever it is, we have something new for you. Grounds for Faith is an opportunity to meet others who share our faith. We bring in experts to lead engaging dialog on topics related to the Church, work, family, relationships, and social justice. There are also other social , service, and faith opportunities offered.

What is Grounds for Faith?

Grounds for Faith is hosted by Guardian Angels Parish and open to all young adults in the diocese in their 20's, 30's & 40's. It is an opportunity to foster faith and friendships in an informal atmosphere. Compelling speakers on topics pertinent to young adults provides an environment of sharing knowledge, faith, questions, and concerns.

At each event, young adults come together to listen to a speaker, enjoy coffee and refreshments, discuss current topics, and socialize. After the speaker, the group goes out to continue discussions and socialize. Special events are also held throughout the year.
