Queen of Heaven Church. On Saturday, February 25 at 7 pm, singer/songwriter Tatiana Cameron, professionally known as Tajči (Tai-Chee), will perform “I Thirst – the Crucifixion Story” at Queen of Heaven Church, 1800 Steese Rd., Green, OH. The free concert - donations accepted - features Tajči on keyboards, backed by electronic instrumentalist Denny Bouchard.

Since the spring of 2000, Tajči has shared her emotional programs in over 800 concerts building a nationwide following. As a teenager, the artist was a pop music superstar in Communist Central Europe. Tajči abandoned her fame at age twenty-one and fled to the United States, where she eventually began performing in churches across America.

“People are hungry to be fed spiritually and this is a great way to do it, through the woman’s music,” says Reverend John Skehan of St. Christopher’s Church in York, ME, where Tajči performed four springs ago. Seventeen-year-old Andrew Brown of Hampden, ME was in that audience as well: “She was absolutely amazing and the experience was powerful.”

Tajči, in collaboration with Los Angeles-based producer Denny Bouchard, adopted and arranged a wide array of musical styles, incorporating traditions and ethnic origins into a mesmerizing musical piece. This artist’s performance, executed with sincere spirituality, features contemporary Christian favorites such as “Via Dolorosa,” Tajči’s original songs, Hebrew and Gregorian chants and classic hymns such as “Were You There” and “O Sacred Head Surrounded.”

Tajči’s “I Thirst” concert was filmed in Los Angeles, CA in 2004 and has been broadcast on many TV stations, including EWTN. It has become a favorite broadcast on XM World radio during the Easter triduum. See Tajči at www.idobelieve.com
