

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church
109 N. Main St.
P. O. Box 48
Glandorf, OH 45848

“St. Bonifest” fall festival, is named after Saint Boniface, the German Patron Saint. Since many of the residents have German ancestry, St. John’s decided to name the festival after St. Boniface, who is depicted in a stain glass window in St. John’s church and shown above.

The festival will be held Saturday, October 30, 2010 at St. John’s Hall. An outdoor Mass at the Marian Shrine (across from the church) will begin at 4:00 p.m. The Marian Shrine’s new altar will be blessed by Fr. Tony at our St. Bonifest Mass.

A meal (beef, mashed potatoes, noodles, sweet corn, dessert, roll, coffee & lemonade) will be served from 5:00 to 6:30. Tickets are $7.00 for adults and $4.00 for children. The sweet corn was prepared and frozen this summer by parish members.

Beginning at 4:00 p.m. under the beer tent we will be selling $10 & $20 bet board squares for the OSU game. Various entertainment will begin at 5:00 p.m. which includes gambling, 50-50 ticket - $1 each or 6 for $5, games, and refreshments, including beer, brats, & German potato salad. There will be a big screen TV for the Ohio State vs. Minnesota night game, with kickoff at 8:00 p.m.

Bavarian Brass will be playing various types of music including polka music, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Kids games from 7 -9 p.m. in the cafeteria sponsored by the Youth Group.

A silent auction will begin at 5:00 p.m. and run through 9:30. If you would like to donate any items please bring them to the rectory.

St. John’s Parish plans on making St. Bonifest an annual fundraising event, the last Saturday of October. Come out and join us, everyone is welcome.